In the Wild from the Luxury of the Lodge at Moosehead Lake

Greenville, ME, February, 2009 – The Moosehead Lake area has been called the Jackson Hole of the northeast and is the perfect balance of lake, woods and wild. From the Lodge you can take in the breathtaking view of Moosehead Lake, fill your lungs with the clean fresh air and gaze upon the boundless forest. This land is a rarity and a true retreat for vacationers looking for rest, relaxation and renewed spirit in a time of world uncertainty.

The Lodge at Moosehead Lake is the perfect sanctuary for the nature lover who isn't really up for camping. It provides four diamond amenities amongst twig tables, white birch accents and moose antlers used as tie backs for custom designed window treatments. The Lodge was built in 1917 as a private residence and then converted to a successful restaurant in the 1980's. For the last fifteen years, the Lodge has garnered award after award for romantic getaway, best remote luxury, hideaway of the year, most outstanding inn of North America, editor's lodging picks and so forth.

Each of the five Lodge rooms and four Carriage House suites has been uniquely decorated to reflect the natural surroundings of Moosehead Lake while providing the ultimate in luxury. Beds in the Lodge are one of a kind, hand-carved by a local artist in themes of trout, moose, bear, loon and totem. A gas fireplace and comfortable seating provide instant ambience. The four suites in the carriage house are just another level above. They are a perfect retreat from a day of viewing wildlife or hiking. Each suite offers a massive view with private patio to watch the lingering summer sunsets.

The thoughtful extras are at the Lodge as well. From ample wooden hangers, to comfortable pillows, luxury sheets, chocolate truffles at bed time, electric blankets, make-up mirrors and lip balm.

Many guests have visited the coast of Maine, but fewer venture north to experience the lakes and north woods of the Moosehead region. The Lodge can help you choose activities including a privately guided Moose Safari via canoe on a remote pond. This could just as well be called a wildlife tour for all the many animals that are seen. Look for beaver, loon, eagle, fox and of course moose. A chartered seaplane ride over the 20 x 40 mile expanse of Moosehead Lake will top off any day. No matter what the season, there is much to choose from. The owners, Linda and Dennis Bortis suggest guests make their activity reservations in advance of arrival to be sure their requests can be met.

At the Lodge you can dine while enjoying one of the most beautiful views on the lake, whether you choose to eat in the Lakeview Dining room, patio or Chloe's Pub. The Lodge's Up North Cuisine is casual, yet sophisticated. Signature items include peekytoe Maine crab cakes wrapped in Maine grown Yukon potatoes with a Down east Remoulade and grilled filet mignon topped with gorgonzola butter, served with panéed Maine potatoes and grilled asparagus.

The Lodge at Moosehead Lake is original, a reflection of the wildlife and natural grandeur that surrounds it. It's that "rustic elegance" in conjunction with quality service that sets the Lodge apart as a memorable experience.
